Applicant is advised to examine the International Classification of Goods and Services established under the Nice Agreement, Tenth Edition, to describe the products or services that are used commercially in Puerto Rico. See <http://www.wipo.int/classifications/nice/es/>.

Note that Rule 33 of the Rules provides that the applicant may amend his application during the review of the application, when required by the Examining Attorney or other official reasons. The applicant may amend his application to clarify or limit, but not to extend the identification of goods or services. Given the above, the Examining Attorney requires that the applicant modify and amend its application for renewal as indicated in this Office Action or otherwise show cause why this amendment is not necessary.

In light of the aforementioned, the Examiner requires the Applicant to modify and/or amend the application for registration as provided herein or, otherwise, show cause why such modification is not required.

According to Rule 36 of Puerto Rico's Trademark Rules of Procedure amendments filed must be specified in a written and signed statement by the Applicant or its Representative. Neither Applicant nor its Representative shall rewrite, alter, modify, erase or include words in a pending application. However, the Puerto Rico Trademark Office (PRTTO) may amend the said application with the Applicant's consent.

According to Rule 27 of Puerto Rico's Trademark Rules of Procedure, if the PRTTO does not receive a response to the abovementioned remarks within ninety (90) days, the Application shall be considered abandoned.

Note: Please refer to the name of the Examining Attorney. The office action response shall be filed online at <https://prtmfiling.f1hst.com/> using the transaction office action response. The cost for the said filing is $15.00. If you have any questions via email to jpagan@estado.pr.gov
